

November 13, 2009

Second Nature Fellow Jim Elder Receives
The Conservation Award of the National Wildlife Federation

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency announced today its temporary suspension of BP from new contracts with the federal government, citing "BP's lack of business integrity as demonstrated by the company's conduct with regard to the Deepwater Horizon blowout, explosion, oil spill, and response."