Anthony Cortese, President of Second Nature and Lead Organizer of ACUPCC
Delivers Rousing Speech to Thousands at Bioneers 2010

Second Nature President Anthony Cortese delivered an inspiring speech at the 2010 Bioneers Conference on the role that higher education must play in addressing climate change. Watch the video below as Dr. Cortese surveys some of the most promising developments in education such as the ACUPCC, and what still need to happen.

Sorry it's no longer accessible for free, but you can watch another of Dr. Cortese's speeches, given at TEDxGreenville in 2010, here: Dr. Anthony Cortese – Stable Climate: Thriving World.
