

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: November 8, 2017

For more information contact: Andrea G. Smith, Communications Manager, Second Nature, 617-580-0363, asmith@secondnature.org

National organizations, Members of Congress, Mayors, Businesses and Advocates Join Together on November 14 to Support the Paris Climate Goals

Washington D.C. – As international leaders meet in Bonn, Germany, for climate negotiations, a large, diverse coalition is joining together for a #StillIn Day of Action to show that state and local officials, businesses, tribal leaders and advocacy groups are stepping up in the absence of leadership from the Trump administration on climate.

On November 14, during the COP 23, the Center for American Progress, Organizing for Action, 350.org, the League of Conservation Voters, Second Nature, Sierra Club, NextGen America,, The Climate Reality Project, Climate Nexus and more are hosting events across the country to support local climate action in the absence of federal leadership.

What:

#Stillin Day of Action: More than 20 Events in 13 States and Washington D.C.

<https://www.wearestillin.com/DayOfAction2017>

When:

Tuesday, November 14, 2017

Where:

Arizona: Phoenix; Tucson

California: Orange County; Sacramento; San Rafael; Vista

Colorado: Denver

District of Columbia: Washington, DC

Florida: Fort Lauderdale

Maine: Portland

Montana: Bozeman; Missoula

Nevada: Las Vegas; Reno

New Hampshire: Plymouth

New Jersey: Little Falls

North Carolina: Raleigh

Ohio: Cleveland, Cincinnati

Pennsylvania: Philadelphia, Pittsburgh

Virginia: Hampton Roads

###

18 Tremont Street, STE 930, Boston, MA 02108 | 617.722.0036 | info@secondnature.org

