

Pablo Berrutti

Pablo is a Senior Investment Specialist with the Sustainable Funds Group at Stewart Investors. Previously, Pablo was Head of Responsible Investment Asia Pacific at Colonial First State Global Asset Management (now First Sentier Investors). He is the founder of Altioem, a not-for-profit library and resource centre dedicated to supporting a sustainable financial system. He is also the former Chair and a current director of the Responsible Investment Association of Australasia and was on the management committee of the Investor Group on Climate Change for 8 years.