

Pedro Henriques da Silva

Pedro joined Global Endowment Management (GEM) in 2019, to support GEM's versatile impact investment work on behalf of mission-led institutional clients. Driven by impact, Pedro uses his experiences as a former educator, foundation in economics, and passion for positive investing to evaluate socio environmental impact across a range of asset classes, stakeholders, and geographies. He holds a B.A. in Economics from Reed College, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.