

YeVonne Allen, M.S. serves as the TMCC Equity, Inclusion, and Sustainability Program Director. YeVonne champions the efforts for equity, inclusion, and diversity-related topics for students, staff, and faculty. She is the current TMCC Faculty Senate Chair, chair of the TMCC Diversity Committee, and past-chair of the NSHE Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Council.

YeVonne holds a M.S. in Equity and Diversity in Education from the University of Nevada, Reno. She also holds certificates in “Strategies for Building and Leading Diverse Organizations” from Harvard University and in "Leading for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion in Higher Education" from the University of Michigan. Recently, she completed a fellowship with the University of Michigan's National Forum on Higher Education for the Public Good's New Leadership Academy.

YeVonne, a human rights advocate, sits on the City of Reno Civil Service Commission and is the Northern Nevada Pride Marketing Director. She likes to spread connections, collaborations, and courage through the region, and encourages everyone to be kind.

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/yevonneallen/>